

Arūnas PAULAIŠKAS

Chief Commissioner, Deputy Police Commissioner
General of Lithuanian Police (Operations)

LITHUANIA

Candidate for the post of Vice-President for Europe of INTERPOL Executive Committee

TO DEFEND. TO PROTECT. TO HELP.

Priorities

- To support Interpol in becoming a centre of excellence in hi-tech policing for all member states.
- To ensure fast and easy access to relevant Interpol data for every law enforcement officer on the ground.
- To support Member Countries in combating international crime, including cybercrime and environmental crime.
- To support cooperation between Interpol and Member States to enhance effective delivery of relevant training to law enforcement officers.
- To support Interpol in maintaining the highest standards of Human Rights in the provision of service to law enforcement agencies.

Skills

- Executive leadership
- Strategic planning
- Management of developmental change and reform
- Operational command and investigation
- Excellent intercultural communication skills

LITHUANIAN POLICE

INTERPOL

TO DEFEND. TO PROTECT. TO HELP.

Main Responsibilities

- Management of developmental change in Lithuanian police.
- Management of criminal police and uniformed police forces in Lithuania.

Education

- Master's degree in Policing in Europe, CEPOL European Joint Master's Program. Extensive knowledge on international and EU police cooperation tools and instruments.
- Master's degree in Law and Police Activity, Mykolas Romeris University, Lithuania.

TO DEFEND. TO PROTECT. TO HELP.

Experience

- Having served in Lithuanian Police since 1993, Mr. Paulauskas has extensive professional experience in a wide range of fields from crime investigation to senior management of the main Lithuanian Police institutions.
- Since the restoration of the independence of the Republic of Lithuania more than 30 years ago, Mr. Paulauskas has played an ongoing active role in the creation of a modern, effective and efficient Lithuanian Police force. Lithuanian Police today has a highest degree of public trust.

Experience at the International level

- Setting the main priorities for the National Contact Point

- Member of the Europol Management Board

- Member of the Cepol Management Board

- Leadership of different international projects

TO DEFEND. TO PROTECT. TO HELP.

Motto

”

Every strategic decision should be actionable and useful
at a practical level

“

Mr. Arūnas PAULAUSKAS

Lithuania

